

Subject: OTC 2006 Offers More than Ever Before

With the 2006 Offshore Technology Conference (OTC) only two months away, register now to take part in the world's foremost event for the development of offshore oil and gas resources. OTC .06 (1-4 May Reliant Center, Houston, Texas USA) offers you more this year than ever before.

The OTC Awards Luncheon will feature a keynote address by Guilherme de Oliveira Estrella, managing director for exploration and production at Petrobras, "New Challenges for the Petroleum Industry."

Three industry breakfasts sponsored by the US Department of Commerce will focus on key emerging offshore areas - India, Russia and Australia.

OTC exhibit space expands with two state-of-the-art, climate-controlled Pavilions that provide over 50,000 square feet of new exhibit space and showcase approximately 250 exhibiting companies.

OTC .06 offers a new program, The Next Wave, to provide young professionals with career insights on leadership, career development, involvement in industry associations and entrepreneurial skills.

Network with colleagues and have fun watching a game of Major League Baseball at OTC Night at the Ballpark. The 2005 National League Champion Houston Astros host the St. Louis Cardinals on 3 May. Purchase half price tickets to this exciting event now.
