

CALL FOR CONTENT

Abstracts for SMC 2021 are invited and are due February 8, 2021.

The SNAME Maritime Convention (SMC) 2021 will take place on 25 - 29 October 2021 in Providence RI, USA. The event will be hybrid, thus in addition to the physical convention in Providence, there will be a virtual option for attendees who may still be unable or uncomfortable with travel at the time of the event next year.

Your input and ideas are needed for this premier event of the international community for maritime and ocean professionals. SNAME members and attendees come from all over the world and represent one or more of the seven Faces of SNAME. Together, they make up one of the strongest cross-functional organizations in the maritime community. The seven Faces of SNAME include:

- Educators/Researchers
- Engineers/Designers
- Manufacturers
- Shipbuilders
- Operators
- Recyclers/Salvors
- and Students

For SMC 2021 we are seeking content that speaks to the Faces of SNAME and the developments of our maritime industry, specifically on the following topics:

- Communications and Security
- Industry Trends and New Technologies
 - Marine Environment Science and Engineering
- Marine Accidents/Forensic Analysis/Salvage
- Marine Design
 - Hydrodynamics
 - Structures
 - Naval Ships
 - Unconventional Ships
- Marine Engineering
- Maritime Engineering Education
- Maritime Operations
 - Ships
 - Offshore Structures
- Maritime Safety
 - Risk Assessment
 - Intact and Damage Stability
 - Class and Regulations
- Maritime Transport
 - Zero Emission Transport
 - Alternative Energies and Fuels
 - Economics and Logistics
- Offshore/Oil Industry/ Wind Industry
- Ports and Infrastructure
- Shipbuilding/Production/Manufacturing

No matter the type of maritime or offshore business, geographical location, or professional activity, the SNAME Maritime Convention is your opportunity to interact with colleagues of all seven Faces of SNAME, from all over the world, and from all segments of the industry.
